Subject No. 336.
Municipal Bye-Laws, Mysore City.

Summary of discussion.—The bye-laws submitted by the Mysore Municipality may be sanctioned.

Reply of Government.—These will be issued very shortly. Sanction of the Government of India to the Draft Amendment Regulation is awaited.

Subject No. 337.
Establishment of a Poor House at Mysore.

Summary of discussion.—A Poor House may be established at Mysore.

Reply of Government.—Referred to reply previously given to Subject No. 290 of 1895. Taking into consideration the fact that in connection with various charities in Mysore City about 700 destitute persons now receive rice-doles or money monthly, the establishment of a separate Poor House is hardly necessary.

Subject No. 338.
Establishment of Commercial Banks at Mysore and Bangalore.

Summary of discussion.—Commercial Banks on the lines of Agricultural Banks may be established as a tentative measure at Bangalore and Mysore. For instance, one Krishniengar who makes matches and match boxes from bamboos deserves help.

Reply of Government.—All such useful industries are encouraged by Government as far as possible. The establishment by Government of Commercial Banks is out of the question.

Subject No. 339,
Removal of Padakhanas to a place outside the City of Mysore.

Summary of discussion.—The Padakhanas in the City of Mysore may be located outside the City limits with Police Stations near them.

Reply of Government.—Referred to the Excise Commissioner for consideration.

Subject No. 340.
Silting of Doddakere and Karanji Tanks in Mysore.

Summary of discussion.—The Doddakere and Karanji Tanks may be silted up or converted into 2 or 3 small tanks each.

Reply of Government.—Noted.

Subject No. 341.
Establishment of an Eye-Infirmary at Mysore.

Summary of discussion.—An Eye Infirmary may be established at Mysore.

Reply of Government.—There is no real need for this at present.

Subject No. 342.
A road from T. Narsipur to Kollegal.

Summary of discussion.—There is no good road for about 10 miles from T. Narsipur to Kollegal. This may be ordered to be made.

Reply of Government.—The Deputy Commissioner is enquiring into the matter.

Subject No. 343.
Connecting Mysore with Tellicherry or Cannanore by Railway

Summary of discussion.—Mysore may be connected with Tellicherry or Cannanore by Railway.

Reply of Government.—Noted.

Subject No. 344.
Addition of a Chair for Logic and Philosophy to the Maharaja's College, Mysore, and abolition of the High School Depart

Summary of discussion.—A Chair for Logic and Philosophy may be added to the Maharaja's College, Mysore, and the High School Department thereof abolished.

Reply of Government.—Referred to the Inspector General of Education for consideration.
